

The Confucius Institute at the University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa presents its Distinguished Teacher Award to the

Distinguished Scholar and the Founder of Chinese Legal Studies in the U.S.

Jerome A. Cohen

Professor of Law at New York University School of Law; Senior Fellow for Asia Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations; and “Of Counsel” at the international law firm Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP

Dr. Cohen will speak on

“Half a Century of U.S.–China Relations: Some Personal Experiences”

March 18, 4:30 p.m.
Queen Liliuokalani Center, Room 412
University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa
Reception to follow.

Dr. Cohen will receive the Confucius Institute at UHM’s “Distinguished Teacher Award” to honor him for his contributions to Chinese Studies.