Developing the Next Generation of Global Leaders:

The Importance of Chinese Language Programs in Public Schools

The UHM Chinese Language Teacher Education Program (CLTE) and the Confucius Institute at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa cordially invite you to a symposium titled "Developing the Next Generation of Global Leaders: The Importance of Chinese Language Programs in Public Schools" with keynote speaker Kristin Hayden, Founder and Executive Director of One World Now! in Seattle, WA. One World Now! is a two-year global leadership program offering high school sophomores and juniors from eight Seattle public schools development opportunities through multicultural/leadership training, foreign language studies and study abroad programs. Ms. Hayden was recently selected as an Ashoka Fellow, "as a leading social entrepreneur who we recognize to have innovative solutions and the potential to change patterns across society."

In addition, you will hear information/updates on programs provided by the UHM's Chinese Language Teacher Education Program (CLTE), the Confucius Institute (CI) and the Center for Chinese Studies (CCS).

Luncheon will be provided to the first 30 attendees who sign up, so please RSVP today! Participants from the Neighbor Islands: The Confucius Institute will subsidize up to $100 each for round-trip airfare for the first three Neighbor Island educators to attend the symposium. So please respond right away!
